

Modifying Considerations include patient and care partner priorities and preferences, available audiological services, insurance coverage, cognitive impairment, financial concerns, technology access, use, preferences, and self efficacy, mobility, transportation, navigational needs, available assistance, a available support from care partners

